LATE DR. VITHALRAO VIKHE PATIL

PADMASHREE AWARDEE

(29th August 1901-27th April 1980)

The pioneer of sugar co-operative movement, who had a humble beginning, was chiefly instrumental in, organizing the much exploited sugarcane growers of the 44 villages, in and around Pravaranagar, way back in 1948, and establishing Asia's first co-operative sugar factory, which was commissioned in 1950. Born in a farmer's family at Loni in 1901, he was distressed by the pitiable plight of the poor, the illiterate and the downtrodden peasantry who were exploited by the moneylenders, feudal the lords, and private sugar factory owners. In those days the local peasantry of Pravara area had to face difficulties in marketing of sugar cane, as conversion of sugarcane into sugar was totally uneconomical.

Padmashree begun exploring ways of uplifting the farmers of this region. It dawned on him that co-operative movement was the only ideal medium to reach his end. Thus, begun the saga of co-operative movement in India. He empower the cooperative movement as a tool for social, educational & economic upliftment of the rural masses. His untiring efforts changed the rural scene of Maharashtra and created awareness amongst the people to guide a prospective and purposeful life. He was awarded "Padmashree" - the distinguished title in appreciation of his life's work in the co-operative movement was honored by former President of India, 'Late' Dr. Rajendra Prasad in 1961. He was felicitated with the honorary D.Lit. degree by University of Pune in 1978 and Doctor of Science in 1979 by Mahatma Phule Krishi Vidyapeeth, Rahuri. To realize the visionary thoughts, his legacy son - 'Late' Padmabhushan Shri. Balasaheb Vikhe Patil, the Minister of Heavy Industries and Public Enterprises, established. "Dr. Vithalrao Vikhe Patil Foundation". While working for the economic prosperity of the farmers, Padmashree Dr. Vithalrao Vikhe Patil was also conscious of the needs of their children, especially that of quality education. It was not long before he once again used his co-operative mantra to ensure the direct participation of the sodbusters in this project. Thus translated dreams of Padmashree, into realities by meticulous planning and offering dynamic leadership to the society
