LATE DR. VITHALRAO VIKHE PATIL

PADMASHREE AWARDEE

(29th August 1901 – 27th April 1980)

Padmashree Dr. Vithalrao Vikhe Patil, a pioneer of the Sugar Cooperative movement, organized sugarcane growers in 44 villages in and around Pravaranagar in 1948. He established Asia's first co-operative sugar factory in 1950. Born in 1901, Padmashree was distressed by the plight of the poor, illiterate, and downtrodden peasantry in the region. He began exploring ways to uplifting farmers and initiated the cooperative movement as a tool for social, educational, and economic upliftment. His efforts changed the rural scene of Maharashtra and created awareness for a purposeful life. Padmashree's son, 'Late' Padmabhushan Shri. Balasaheb Vikhe Patil, then Minister of Heavy Industries and Public Enterprises, established Dr. Vithalrao Vikhe Patil Foundation, to ensure direct participation of sodbusters in the project.

Our Founder

Late Dr. Balasaheb Vikhe Patil, son of late Dr. Vithalrao Vikhe Patil, was a prominent leader in Maharashtra State and a Member of Parliament for over two decades. He implemented a strategy called Social Transformation through education to raise awareness among small peasants and rural poor. Late Dr. Eknathrao Alias Balasaheb Vikhe Patil founded several institutions, includes Dr. Vithalrao Vikhe Patil Foundation, Pravara Institute of Research and Education, Pravara Rural Medical Trust, and Pravara Co-Operative Dairy Society for Villages. He was also a founder of several sugar factories and banks. Late Dr. Balasaheb Vikhe Patil was awarded Padmabhushan by the Government of India in 2010 and awarded Honorary Degree of "Doctor of Science" by Mahatma Phule Krishi Vidyapeeth Rahuri in 2013.
